UN Convention Rights of the Child

Every child has the right to think and believe what they choose and to practice their religion, as long as they are not stopping other people from enjoying their rights.' Article 14 The UN Convention of the rights of the child.

Religious Education at Reckleford engages, inspires, challenges and encourages pupils, equipping them with the knowledge and skills to answer challenging questions about their world. They explore different religious beliefs, values and traditions and develop a more rigorous understanding of the numerous religious traditions, beliefs and practices that are followed in our multi-cultural and multi-faith society.
